FINDING BOOKS

In the Ryan Library...

The Ryan Online Catalog can be accessed by going to the library’s homepage, www.scs.edu/library, and clicking on the link “The Catalog” From the catalog you can search for books, renew items, and make requests for materials.

In other libraries...

A great resource for finding books is the World Catalog (also known as World Cat). To access this database, you must be logged in as an off-campus user (see Finding articles)

Once you identify a book in World Cat that you would like and that the Library does not own, please click on “Borrow this item from another library” From there you are taken to an online form. This service is only available to students, faculty and staff of St. Charles Seminary.

FINDING WEBSITES

The Library has compiled a large number of selected websites that have been recommended by faculty and reviewed by librarians. To check these sites out, click on Websites on the Library homepage.
